Hale School Remodeling Contract Bids Approved

ROMULUS—Construction contract bids for the remodeling and renovation of the Old Hale Elementary School located at 30254 Eureka Road, as the new site for the District Court for the 34th Judicial District has been approved.

The Township Board last week approved low bids for the required carpentry, plumbing and heating, Alfred J. Perry, township clerk, reported. There were five bids submitted and considered by Board members.

William Oakley, of 9875 Totine submitted the low bid for carpentry work. The bid was $13,564. And Hazen P. Hay, of 15385 Huron River Drive, who submitted bids on both plumbing and heating contracts for $1,485 and $4,178 respectively. Both were approved by the Township Board.

The 34th District Court is presently sitting at the Van Buren Township Hall, located at 46425 Tyler Road, with Judge Richard Dunn of Dearborn Heights presiding pending the appointment of a successor to Judge Francis D. Ross, who resigned shortly after the court opened for business. ***

THE COURT embraces the areas of Belleville and the townships of Romulus, Sumpter, Huron and Van Buren.

NEW BOSTON—Construction crews started work last week on the initial phase of Huron Township's $4,950,000 sanitary sewer improvement program.

The big sanitary sewer project brings to Huron Township residents and businesses their first lateral and interceptor sewers, George Angel, township supervisor, announced.

The first phase, which amounts to 20 percent of the construction cost, began on Huron River Drive near the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad tracks and is expected to be completed by the end of this year.

THE CONSTRUCTION of the sanitary sewer system is being financed by a bond issue purchased by The First of Michigan Corporation and Clark, Dodge & Company, Inc.

These firms headed a group of eleven dealers which purchase $3,600,000 Huron System and $1,350,000 Flat Rock-Huron Township System bonds in January, 1969.

The interceptor sewer runs through the township to the Wayne County Road Commission's Disposal and Treatment Plant in Flat Rock.

Present construction has the faith and credit backing of the Wayne County Road Commission and the approval of Michigan Municipal Finance Commission.

Huron Township with considerable farm land has shown signs of commercial and industrial expansion recently and with the completion of the approved sanitary sewers will enhance further industrial and well as commercial and residential expansion in the township, Angel stated.

THE PRESENT program's start was hastened by a Wayne County Circuit Court order that directed the Township to comply with directives of Michigan Water Resources Commission which called for a stop to pollution of the Huron River in Huron Township.

The commission had appealed to the courts when the township's electorate defeated two Contract Propositions for the construction of the $4,050,000 sewer program in May, 6, 1968.

The delay in initiating the project's bids caused by the voters' decision resulted in higher construction and labor costs to the present $4,950,000. Angel disclosed.

Mrs. Johnson, of 36015 Beverly Road, the wife of the Rev. Myles Johnson and mother of two children, has taught two classes since the spring of 1968. The current class is held from 7 to 9 p.m. each Wednesday. Romulus Junior High School donates the use of a home economics classroom for the Neighborhood Center Class.

"Although she also operates a beauty shop, Mrs. Johnson is always willing to help and finds time to offer her service to do anything that is needed," said Mrs. Christine Anderson, supervisor of the Romulus Neighborhood Center.

Mrs. Johnson this month also is teaching sewing to young girls in conjunction with a special consumer education project under the direction of Romulus Center Aide Earlie Mosely.

"Mrs. Johnson gives her students a lot of encouragement," Mrs. Anderson said. "Since OEO is unable to provide supplies for volunteer classes, but Mrs. Johnson never complains and manages to make do with what is available."

The Volunteer of the Month award recognizes the dedication and consistent service of individuals and groups in helping low-income people help themselves through the Economic Opportunity Program.

Junior High Band at Festival

ROMULUS—The Romulus Junior High School Band will perform in the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Festival at Grosse Ile this Saturday, March 15. This will make the second consecutive appearance of the band in the festival.

One of the adjudicators at the festival this year will be Dr. William D. Revelli, director of bands at the University of Michigan.

Professor Revelli is considered by many to be the outstanding figure in the band field in America today. This represents a great challenge, as well as a wonderful musical experience, for the 55-member band. Dr. Revelli is also known to be one of the most demanding adjudicators.

The Romulus Junior High Band, under the direction of Richard Kruse, will perform "Marco Polo" by Donald

Moore; "Kensington Overture" by Paul Whear and the difficult "North Sea Overture" by NBC staff arranger, Ralph Hermann. "Kensington Overture" is the required selection which all bands in Class "B", Jr. High School classification, will perform. ***

ACTUALLY ROMULUS Junior High School is a Class "A" Junior High by enrollment, however, since it has only seventh and eighth grade students, the M.S.B.O.A. lowers by one the classification of the school.

Members of the band participating are: FLUTE—Carla Hay, Gloria Hummer, Lisa Sayer, Myra Breazeale, Denise LeFevre, Leona Barzart, Lynne Petre, Darla Bonk. ## Police Fire Chiefs Air Views to Charter Board

ROMULUS—Joe Crova, Romulus fire chief, and Jacob J. Koch, police chief, spoke to the Romulus Charter Commission on March 5.

Crova said that he thought that the new city could start with a fire department of full time men and volunteers. One man should be at a station at all times necessitating three full time men per station, he said. Crova added: "We must have two main fire stations, one on either side of the railroad tracks through town because of the trouble with trains switching at various times of the day and the possible consequent holdup of fire equipment as has happened in the past."

Police Chief Koch suggested that the community have one man per each police car patrolling the city and two men per car in the evening. "To start off," he said, "we should have a nine-man full-time staff and then can form an airport auxiliary force later on. Eventually there should be two policemen per one thousand citizens." ***

BOTH MEN suggested that the new city have civil service for their departments with a merit system for promoting men.

The merit system combines a time in-service system and an oral test method of promotion, the oral test being administered by people from without the community i.e. other city departments, to make it fair and just.

Plans are now being made by the local charter commission to talk with outside police and fire chiefs to secure their ideas about what has worked for their own departments.

Two other visitors at last week's meeting talked about the idea of another name for the proposed city, other than Romulus. Two other interested citizens were also in attendance.

Tonight (Wednesday) the commission will meet briefly at the Water and Sewer Building on Bibbins Street and then to speak to a meeting of the local Homeowners Association.

County Probes Airport Noise

WAYNE—A committee of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors will look into the problem of jet airplane noise at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport in response to complaints from homeowners.

Edmund Bizek, 24th District Supervisor and chairman of the Supervisors Transportation Committee, has set a meeting between his committee and officials of the County Road Commission, which operates the airport, for 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, March 11. The meeting will be held in Room 1320 of the City-County Building.

"The purpose of this meeting is to acquaint the citizens with what has been and will be done about the noise problem," Bizek said, adding: "I have asked the Road Commission to be prepared to answer a lot of these technical questions. There definitely is a problem in the vicinity of all jet airports."

"The Federal government is pressing the aircraft manufacturers to minimize noise, and the newer aircraft are not as noisy as the older ones. Older aircraft are being modified to reduce noise."

"After our committee has all the facts before it, we may hold a public hearing to acquaint the community with the situation."

She will be responsible for combating racial discrimination and for promoting the advancement of minority group members in the hiring and promotion of Wayne County employees.

IN ADDITION, she will review the employment policies of firms contracting with the county to assure that the non-discrimination clauses in contracts are adhered to.

The Board of Supervisors, acting at its March 6 meeting, made her appointment to the $17,961-a-year post effective immediately.

Mrs. Garrett, a black woman who resides on Detroit's northwest side, began her career in the fields of personnel and human relations on the staff of the Wayne County Civil Service Commission. Then she was community services coordinator at Wayne County General Hospital.

HER LATER positions included personnel administrator at Oakland Community College and project job development and placement specialist for the Detroit Mayor's Youth Employment Project.

State Highway Map Is Entirely Redrawn

Just about everything but the name and shape of the state has been changed on the 1969 edition of the Official Michigan Highway Map, the State Highway Commission reported.

The new map, now available for distribution, has been entirely redrawn, making it neater and easier to read. Red grid lines keyed to the borders have been added, making it easier to find cities listed in the index.

Bordering states and Canada appear in one color, calling more attention to Michigan, and county roads appear in gray instead of black, calling more attention to the state highways.

The reverse side also has a new look with the most helpful change being the addition of color to the city insert maps. This makes them more meaningful, especially for motorists who want to know where the cities leave off and the suburbs begin.

Theme of the 1969 map is tourism, Michigan's booming billion-dollar-a-year-plus business. Colorful photos on the map cover and reverse side call attention to travel and the great variety of things to do and see in Michigan.

The Commission is printing 1.3 million copies of the map, an increase of 300,000. The additional maps will be distributed to potential Michigan vacationers through facilities of the Michigan Tourist Council.

Most of the remaining maps will be distributed in response to mail and telephone requests, and through the nine travel information centers operated by the Commission.

The Commission noted that although the quantity of maps has been increased this year, the supply is still far short of the growing demand. The Commission plans to increase its printing of maps to two million annually beginning with the 1970 edition.

Requests for 1969 maps should be addressed to Official Michigan Highway Map, Michigan Department of State Highways, Post Office Drawer K, Lansing, Michigan, 48904.

Ford Builds New Plant On Flat Rock Track

FLAT ROCK — Ford Motor Company today announced plans to build a multi-million-dollar castings plant in the greater Detroit area.

Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, said the plant will be built at Flat Rock, about 20 miles from downtown Detroit in southern Wayne County. It will produce engine blocks and a wide variety of engine and cast-iron powertrain parts for Ford, Mercury, Thunderbird and Lincoln Continental cars, and Ford trucks.

Planning is proceeding on schedule and has been helped by excellent cooperation from local, county and state government agencies, Ford said.

The new plant should be completed in 1971, with partial operation scheduled for the 1972 model year. By 1973, it will employ more than 3,500 persons and will have five production lines in operation.

Ford said the new plant will be one of the largest and most modern of its type in the world, with the latest equipment for control of air emissions and treatment of water. It will have more than 2,000,000 square feet of floor space.

Use of modern arc-melting techniques will provide improved cleanliness, and other innovations such as automatic pouring and defining of castings will make the plant the best modern technology can design.

Many of the plant's operations will be transferred from the Ford Rouge area in Dearborn, where they are located in a facility nearly a half-century old and not suited for modernization.

Ford said a major factor in the selection of the Flat Rock area was to provide affected employees an opportunity to transfer to the new plant and continue their Ford employment. Investigation is under way on the possibility of providing public transportation service from Detroit to the new facility.

The plant site is being acquired from the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad. It will be on a 500-acre tract west of the I-75 freeway, south of Vreeland Road and north of Gibraltar Road. It is two miles south of Ford's new Woodhaven Stamping Plant, and about six miles from a new Ford Service Parts Processing and Redistribution Center under construction in Brownstown Township.

Petipren Plans Bill on Teaching

Westland--Rep. Vincent Petipren, D-Westland, will introduce a bill in the House of Representatives in the very near future to "establish a legal status for the teaching profession" in Michigan.

The Petipren bill would provide for a systematic development of self-government for teachers and would establish programs to encourage higher professional performance.

A primary aim of the proposal is to provide guarantees in the interest of public welfare, by setting standards of accountability for teaching. These standards would include criteria for entry into teaching and for quality of performance.

THE BILL would establish a professional practices commission which would:

Determine the requirements for, and issuance of licenses and certificates for teachers, administrators, and other specialists in the schools of the state, subject to approval by the State Board of Education;

Establish a system of fees for registration, certification and licensing of members of the teaching profession;

Develop criteria of practices in areas including, but not limited to professional performances and preparation for and continuance in professional service;

Establish and enforce a code of ethics for the teaching profession;

Promote practices for the attainment of professional standards and ethical behavior;

Advise the State Board of Education, colleges of education, colleges of education, and other agencies on matters of education.

PETIPREN CONCLUDED with the following statement, "if teachers are to be a truly professional profession, they must police their own ranks and prove to the people of the state that they are worth of their respect and confidence. This self evaluation of the classroom teacher is long past due."

The landing gear has 28 identically sized wheels. Jet-powered, the C-5 can cruise in the 550 mph range. It carries nearly 50,000 gallons of fuel. The four engine pods are each 8 1/2' in diameter and nearly 27' long -- large enough to garage a Cadillac automobile.

THE AIRCRAFT is being developed by the Air Force Systems Command and is expected to begin regular Air Force service in the summer of this year.

Sullivan has been with the Lockheed Company since 1952 and has been engaged in the development of the C-5 since its beginning. He also was engaged in the development and test programs of other giant Air Force aircraft including the C-141 "Starlifter," C-140 "Jetstar," and the C-130 "Hercules."

Sullivan was born August 11, 1918, in Cloverdale, Iowa. He served as an officer in the Air Force and Navy from 1940-1949.

The meeting is for members and their guests by reservation only. The MAOPA is an affiliate of the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association with more than 1,200 members in 62 of Michigan's counties.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

Even Bankers Can Learn

While columnists launch a great deal of criticism of the now gone Johnson Administration, it was perhaps not as bad as painted. For one thing, it did teach bankers and financiers things they never knew before.

An example of this took place recently in San Francisco. Mortimer Fleishhacker Jr., descendant of a pioneer Western banking family, and a successful financier in his own right, was elected president of the San Francisco Planning Commission. This was a logical appointment because his forebears donated the outstanding zoo at Golden Gate Park which is known by the family name.

But in his first official meeting, Mr. Fleishhacker was informed by Allan Jacobs, city planning director, that they had just received a $485,300 Federal urban beautification grant.

And to top even this news was the announcement that the city could also get a $100,000 Federal grant for the restoration of the historical old South San Francisco Opera house.

However, the city planning director also announced that in order to get this $100,000 the city would have to match it with an equal amount.

Due to the city's financial plight, this caused hesitation on the part of Mr. Fleishhacker.

But the city planning director in so many words told him to quit worrying as the city could use $100,000 out of the $485,300 beautification grant to match the second Federal grant of $100,000 and thus not have to put up a penny to restore the old opera house.

Naturally to banker Fleishhacker this seemed somewhat peculiar, to say the least, and raised some questions.

So the truth came out. The $485,300 was shelled out with no strings attached. In fact, the city planning director informed the commission that if the city supervisors desired, they could use these funds to buy a new Cadillac for their official use if they so desired.

In fact, if they did buy a Cadillac, nothing could be done about it although Director Jacobs said that if the Federal government found out about the Cadillac they might not make a new urban beautification grant next year.

However, it is quite possible that the lesson in Federal finance learned by Banker Fleishhacker will not be of any value to him in the world of banking.

For it is doubtful that the Federal Reserve Board would stand still for this kind of accounting in private banking. And perhaps that is why there has been some clamor in Washington to abolish the Federal Reserve Board as an independent agency and place it under the control of whatever administration is in power.

Board Approves

March 3 session was the hiring of a Billing Clerk for the Water Department on recommendation of William Pritula, department manager.

A new vehicle for the Romulus Building Department to be paid out of the department's 1969-70 budget was approved. Bids are to be taken immediately.

Motion by ALSAC Leukemia Fund to conduct a drive in Romulus Township was granted.

The Board also approved the taking of casualty insurance bids for the township. Sample policies are to be included in the requested bids.

ROMULUS - Army Private Allen J. Lams, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Lams, 12500 Harrison Road, was assigned as a clerk with the 3rd Infantry Division near Kitzingen, Germany.

AVID SKIERS--Michigan's Governor William G. Milliken and his wife, Helen are avid skiers for several years. Above they are shown at Boyne Mountain Resort, Boyne Falls, Michigan which celebrates its 20th anniversary this year. In spite of the press of official duties, the governor and his family manage to ski Michigan's areas at least three times a year.

Residents Schedule Meeting

ROMULUS--The Romulus Township Homeowners Association urges you to make your plans now to attend the Quarterly Meeting on March 12. The agenda for this meeting includes:

Edmund Bizak, Wayne County Board of Supervisor from our district, who will discuss his position and views on this much publicized and controversial subject.

The Nominating Committee, for the Annual

June Election of Officers and Board of Directors, will be selected.

The need of Recreation areas and facilities for the Township will be discussed. A member of the Charter Commission will give a progress report.

The problems of the Romulus School District will also be discussed by a member of the Romulus Citizens Advisory Committee.

IN ROMULUS

Free Adult Basic Education Started

ROMULUS--Classes for the Free Adult Basic Education Program in Romulus Township began Monday, March 3, at the Romulus Junior High School located on Olive Street.

Those in attendance Monday and Thursday evenings found the sessions very interesting and helpful. Even after three hours, they showed a reluctance in going home.

The content of this program is intended to provide subjects and guidelines to insure successful instruction in reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic.

The basic subjects are enriched through instruction in social living. While acquiring reading, writing and arithmetic skills, adult students also learn vocational skills and develop attitudes which enable them to live and function more successfully.

THE CLASSES will be held every Monday and Thursday night, three hours each evening, for 20 weeks at the Romulus Junior High School. There will also be a class held at the Community Methodist Church, Olive Street, during the day for those who work evenings.

An Adult Self-Help Program is also underway in Romulus Township with six classes being opened: sewing, cake decorating, karate, ceramics, typing and gymnastics.

These classes will meet a total of 16 hours with a tuition fee of $10 a person per course.

Travelers Aid Gets New Administrator

The Travelers Aid Society (TAS) of Detroit has appointed Marvin R. Kornegger, former administrative assistant at the Michigan Children's Aid Society, its new director.

He succeeds Mrs. Agnes Jackson, who retired after 18 years at the head of TAS, a Torch Drive service.

Kornegger, 40, received his B.A. degree in liberal arts from Ohio Wesleyan University and his masters in social work from Wayne State University. He served three years in the U.S. Marine Corps, including two years in North China.

HE STARTED his career as a caseworker at the Detroit Children's Aid Society and also has been a caseworker at Pontiac State Hospital, probation officer for the Wayne County Juvenile Court, director of the Northeastern Branch of the Michigan Children's Aid Society in Alpena and director for the Shiawassee County Juvenile Court in Corunna.

In 1963 he went to the headquarters office of the Children's Aid Society, another Torch Drive service, in Farmington.

He lives in Plymouth with his wife Lorraine and three daughters -- Susan, 9, Lynn, 8, and Gail, 6.

Kornegger will head a staff of 12 full-time professionals and 50 volunteers. They man three booths at Metropolitan Airport and one at the Greyhound Bus Depot for a total of 110 hours a week, assisting all travelers with problems -- people who have run out of money; lost their way; can't find a missing relative; can't speak the language or need a place to stay.

Let's Be Thankful For A Free Press

What is a newspaper like in a country where there is no freedom of the press, no advertising, no dissent, a country where the press is but the sounding board of a dictatorship.

The answer can be found in the comment of a U.S. writer, Rebecca Tarshis, recently returned from the Soviet Union, who had an opportunity to visit the headquarters of Pravda, official newspaper of the Soviet communist party.

In an article in the Portland, Oregonian, she says, "Pravda . . . is not attractive by our standards. It has no comic strips, advice to the lovelorn, household hints, recipes, advertising, or any of the numerous other features that brighten American newspapers."

She was told the primary function of Pravda is to crusade for the principles of communism. It is published in a giant government printing establishment. Its profits are turned over to the communist party.

There can be no free press in Russia, since there is no free enterprise to support it.

The color and diversity of the U.S. press — and its independence — are products of the very things we hear criticized so often — advertising, promotion, private enterprise, the free market, competition, profits — things which do not exist in Russia. And without which there would be no free press.

That Pravda is dull should come as no surprise.

Best Investment - Good Education

Larry, 18, is from a small town. He will earn just over $246,000 in his lifetime. Johnny, 18, is from a big city. He can expect to earn more than $340,000 over his lifetime.

This vast difference in their expected lifetime earning power — $94,000 — has little to do with Johnny coming from a big city and Larry coming from a small town.

Johnny is a high school graduate. Larry dropped out of school in the ninth grade. That puts a 38 percent gap between the lifetime earning expectations of the two.

A high school diploma is much more than a piece of paper. It's a key to greater success. The further a person goes in school, the wider becomes the gap separating him from those who drop out.

THE GRADUATE can expect better jobs — more rewarding jobs with a future, that lead toward a more satisfying life, with many intangible social and cultural advantages.

The dropout, however, can look forward to dreary, menial, low-paying jobs. He can expect long periods of unemployment, often no jobs at all.

This year, 800,000 youngsters will drop out of school. Many will join the two million 16 to 21 year olds in the labor force who have not graduated from high school.

If this trend continues, our Nation will have in the work force by 1975 more than 23 million persons over the age of 26 who lack a high school education. This is an especially grim prospect in view of the fact that tomorrow's jobs will demand an even higher measure of education and skill.

To insure that our young people are equipped for the responsibilities of tomorrow, the President's Council on Youth Opportunity has launched the 1968 Stay-in-School Campaign. The success of this program hinges on the wholehearted support of this community and of every community across the Nation.

Teachers and counselors should seek out potential dropouts and encourage them to continue their education. Leaders of civic, business, church, fraternal, and labor organizations should also exert whatever influence they can to impress upon our young people the importance of a good education.

If you know someone who is thinking of dropping out, help him stay in school. It's the best investment any of us can make in our future.

Noise Can Affect The Way We Feel

Have you had that "noisecated" feeling lately?

Do you feel headachy, irritable, frustrated and just not able to get your work done as well as you would like? Then listen around you. It could just be the fault of that power mower, jackhammer, booming rock music, raucous radio, or screeching plane overhead.

We are paying a high price for the rising noise level of our society today.

Medical investigators have shown that excessive noise can interfere with your digestion, break up your sleep, tire you out, and add to your nervous strain.

According to the U.S. Public Health Service, noise may adversely affect as many as 16 million U.S. workers. But most Americans are unaware that noises at home can be just as harmful. Measuring home noises, Dr. Lee E. Farr of the University of Texas found the kitchen to be the loudest room of all.

"THE SOUND is at such a level of intensity," Dr. Farr reported, "that if one were exposed to it for a full working day over an interval of time, acoustic damage would result."

Noise, defined as an unwanted sound that irritates, is measured in decibels, units that describe levels of acoustic pressure, power and intensity. About 35 decibels (db) is acceptable for a classroom; 60 for a sports arena; 90 can be tolerated only for short periods; 100 can cause physical discomfort.

A survey made by the makers of Bayer Aspirin disclosed a power mower alone has 107 db; a kitchen blender, 93. In a "quiet" suburban home, a blender, an automatic dishwasher (60-70 db), garbage disposal unit (70 db) and refrigerator (30-40 db) — as well as a radio, air conditioner and washing machine — may be "sounding off" all at once.

While some sounds drown out others, the typical result is an average decibel level of 80, much higher than that of a sports arena and equivalent to that of a big city street corner.

No wonder, more housewives are reaching for the aspirin bottle to relieve the headaches.

NOISE CAN cause more than headaches. In severe cases there may be damage to your hearing when intense and prolonged sound waves destroy cells in the ear. At the recent National Conference on "Noise as a Health Hazard," U.S. Surgeon General William H. Stewart observed:

"Aside from hearing loss, it has been demonstrated that noise can cause physiological changes. These include cardiovascular, glandular and respiratory effects reflective of a generalized stress reaction."

Other physicians believe there is a direct link between noise and such stress diseases as peptic ulcer, heart disease, colitis and hypertension.

WHAT CAN you do about offsetting or preventing the decibel bombardment? Dr. John D. Dougherty of the Harvard School of Public Health, suggests that we think about the noise level of any appliance we might buy for our home, and cut down the time we spend in any noisy environment. One noise researcher also recommends that we wear ear plugs when using a power mower or an outboard.

To achieve a heavenly hush in your home, acoustical engineers quietly offer these practical hints:

* Be sure your home has sufficient carpeting. Carpeting can absorb more than half of your internal and airborne noise. Upholstered furniture likewise soaks up sound.

* Curtains or draperies can be helpful in preventing hard wall surfaces or a large expanse of glass (such as a picture window) from reflecting noise.

* Acoustical ceilings in the kitchen and playroom may absorb up to 75 per cent of excess noise energy.

* Air conditioners, which keep out much outdoor noise, should have proper vibration mounts to prevent rattling.

* If your dishwasher or washing machine is causing sound pollution, mount it on a felt, cork or rubber mat to absorb vibration. Make sure the appliance is level on the floor.

'IF IT FITZ...'

Thoughts on 4-Letter Words

By JIM FITZGERALD

he first newspaper to give me a by-line, thus pulling the plug on a flood of four-letter words, is still causing the same kind of trouble, 19 years later.

I refer to the State News, the student newspaper at Michigan State University. It is currently under attack by the state legislators in charge of counting the letters in words. This committee of lawmakers is not to be confused with the committee in charge of stamping out nudity on the campus.

And neither committee should be confused with the small band of legislators who don't have time to protect student morals because they're busy trying to figure out how more kids can get better educations, or perhaps how mentally retarded youngsters might be rescued from cruddy dungeons. It is not easy to solve these problems and still afford pay raises and a $40 million office building for all legislators, no matter how stupid.

I don't subscribe to the State News, so I don't know which four-letter words it printed. But Rep. James Brown (R-Okeemos) said the newspaper is "bankrupt in morality" and run by a bunch of "filth peddlers." Brown is a friend of mine and formerly published a fine newspaper. I respect his ability to recognize filth when he sees it.

JIM BROWN was an MSU journalism student the same years I was there. I wish I could be a devil and report that he used to write dirty words on campus statues, but I can't. The truth is, all I can remember about Jim in those days is that he had hair then. And I'm certain he doesn't remember my student days at all — not even the State News article I wrote about artificial insemination as practiced in the MSU cattle barns.

My first paragraph went something like this: "There are a bunch of cows running around this state who don't know who their dads are. Their mothers don't know for sure, either."

And I went on from there in the fashion of most sophomore writers in search of attention. It turned out to be pretty daring stuff for MSU, 1950. A couple of professors went to the MSU and the News advisor snarled some reasonable words in my ear. I got the message which was watch it, wise guy, or you'll be out of a job. No legislator had to demand an investigation.

THAT'S HOW it should be handled today. Some of these college editors may be nothing more than dirty little boys with their first crayons. They should be canned. But most young editors, I suspect, are simply a bit ahead of their time. They are using words you might hear in the movies and on TV and read in thousands of books and magazines. Words commonly used by a large segment of our population when they ask you to pass the butter. But these are words not yet accepted in our newspapers. Not even when used as quotes from a public, newsworthy speech, as in the case of the State News.

So there is a problem. But it is nothing requiring breast-beating speeches from legislators who turned on with the TV lights. The voters elect university regents. They also hire ex-newspapermen to advise student publications. Let these people handle the problem which, when measured by the limited circulation of college papers, doesn't rank far ahead of panty raids. And let the legislators concern themselves with tasks more befitting their salaries, if not their abilities.

A CHARGE often made is that students should damn well behave because taxpayers are subsidizing them. Many of the kids couldn't afford college if working citizens didn't pick up part of the tab. I wouldn't argue with this. But I would say something about playing ball in greenhouses . . .

It has been demanded that the State News be kicked out of the Michigan Press Association (MPA) because of the dirty words. If I were Edward Brill, State News editor, I'd inquire into the relationship between MSU and MPA. The association sells a clipping service, thus making it a profit-making business. And for umpteenth years the MPA has enjoyed rent-free offices on the MSU campus. I learned this from an MPA officer just last month.

Why should taxpayers subsidize the MPA?

Which is a question that might bring forth some four-letter words from editors older than Brill.

FOR EL SALVADORIANS

Peace Corps Volunteers Write About Recreational Programs

(Editor's Note: The following article by U. S. Peace Corps volunteers, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Mabery of New Boston, currently stationed at San Salvador, El Salvador, Central America, assisting the El Salvador Agriculture Extension Department, was received last week. We submit its interesting comments.)

Soccer, volleyball, softball, frisbee, basketball and small recreational games have been a big concern for us since our arrival.

Our struggle to obtain recreational equipment has involved many trips and many letters. Upon our arrival we were immediately aware of the lack of recreation among the young people.

The boys played soccer and the girls, softball. These were the only two games with which they were acquainted. Even these two mentioned sports were incomplete as the girls played softball with a small plastic ball and hit the ball with their hands. Although soccer was played by all, there were very few balls available.

WE FEEL recreation is one of the best means of developing sportsmanship and teaching young people to play and work together. It was a part of our overall plan to develop spirit and teamwork among the rural poor youth.

Upon organizing the 4-C clubs we attempted to teach games which were fun and challenging to the youth. These were an immediate success as almost anything was new. A perfect example is tug-of-war. Although this game only involved a strong piece of rope, most had never played it before. After three or four months the need to acquire some equipment became obvious.

The first opportunity arose when I was teaching English during the evenings. There is a rule in Peace Corps which prohibits Volunteers from charging fees for their services; however, because of our need for equipment it was decided to ask donations from the English students in order to buy equipment for softball and volleyball.

Their contributions were more than enough to obtain a volleyball along with a softball and bat. With this beginning we started teaching the youth how to play volleyball and bat a

SHE STATED to us the possibility of getting recreational equipment through her organization. We immediately wrote a letter asking for their cooperation in this endeavor. This all took place last January and February. We heard nothing until April when a letter came from the Lapeer Rotary Club indicating they had sent us a volleyball kit. Time passed and finally in June we received good news from the American woman's group that they had approved $80 for us to buy equipment for the six 4-C clubs and the 250 members.

At first we thought this would be plenty but it soon became evident that the equipment was more expensive than previously planned. However, we were able to buy equipment for five clubs, leaving one club with 50 members without equipment. In obtaining this equipment we asked each club to donate $2 toward the purchase. This we felt was necessary because the people are always asking for gifts.

We definitely do not believe in giving things away but charging a very minimum price so they will feel they bought it and will take better care of it. The clubs bought softball sets for the girls and volleyballs for the boys.

The reason for volleyball was to teach them some other sport besides soccer. We know they can buy soccer balls when desired but because they have never played volleyball they would not buy a volleyball without experiencing the enjoyment of participating in this game.

FINALLY ON July 15, we received the equipment which the Lapeer Rotary Club had sent. It appears it got tied up in a port strike in Guatemala. Anyway, we now have equipment for the boys on the one remaining club without equipment.

Then just a few weeks ago we received news that the Lions Club of Lapeer had donated sports equipment to be used for the youth of Tecoloca. Although the 4-C clubs are now equipped there is no lack of need for sports equipment.

The primary school of 600 students is almost without equipment as well as the 80 students in the Junior High School. Thus we are sure the sports equipment will be put to excellent use.

As we conclude we want to thank all who have given a little more enjoyment to the less fortunate of the world.

MATAWAN, N. J., JOURNAL: "The newspaper offers our brightest young people a great and satisfying future in serving their country and their fellow man. There is no greater profession for those who seek to make a living with a real purpose in life."

The Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

I would like to commend our School Board for the stand they have taken concerning the guidelines proposed by the State Board of Education.

We have experts on human behavior saying our children want discipline, and another group saying we should let them run the place.

I feel my child in school has a right to an education, anything more is a privilege not a right, and privileges can be taken away for reason.

S.K. PULLEN

To The Editor:

We would like to thank Sumpter Supervisor Mike Kozma and his Township Board for replenishing good samaritan son's (Butch) damaged jacket.

We believe in our township dog ordinance, but feel some of our citizens do not abide by it. This ordinance is very important to all of us. We plead to the Township Board to recommend a caution light at Sumpter and Willows Roads. We have had two critical accidents, injuring two persons fatally in the last four months. Also there is very heavy traffic at Willis and Rawsonville Roads.

We would like to recommend an all-out Sumpter Clean-Up Month (April) to our Township Board. Cleaning up of all debris plus all old junk cars which have been cluttering around residential homes for the past several years. This would be the first in Sumpter Township history.

If approved by the Township Board, it would mean 100 percent cooperation of all Sumpter citizens. The Township Board would make all arrangements for regular and special pick-ups. Good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schwartz.

TO THE EDITOR:

Several days ago, while passing through Belleville, I attempted to obtain a haircut at one of the local barber shops. My hair was quite long at the time but I was amazed to find that the proprietors of the two shops I visited felt that my three-month growth did not qualify me for their services. Obviously, both gentlemen must assume they are operating specialty shops perhaps catering to men sporting crew-cuts that need some slight trimming.

They must be quite upset that the current long hair fashion does not meet their idea of what the perfect male pate should resemble. Perhaps, however, I am wrong in seeing discrimination in all this, the gentlemen may have never had the experience of cutting a full head of hair!

County Still to Operate Nursing Facility

Wayne County must continue to operate a nursing care facility at Wayne County General Hospital to assure that nursing patients receive the care they need.

N. Frank Cylkowski, chairman of the Supervisors Committee on Health, Education and Welfare, said that conclusion was reached by a study group after intensive study of the question. Cylkowski represents Detroit's 16th District.

The county hospital operates an 859-bed long-term care facility for nursing care patients.

A sub-committee of Cylkowski's committee launched a crash study of the situation because the Michigan Department of Public Health has threatened to cut off some $5-million in federal and State

Medicare and Medicaid funds for patients at the long-term care facility due to the condition of the building.

The facility is housed in a building which was constructed during the 1930's as a barracks for 10,000 unemployed men. Its huge wards have as many as 100 beds squeezed into them.

Federal and State standards include a stipulation that "ordinarily" nursing care facilities should have no more than four beds per room. State officials have demanded information to the effect that a "firm effort" is underway to replace the present building with one that conforms.

"It is imperative that we receive this information within the very near future if we are to be able to continue a justification for the certification of this non-conforming building," a spokesman for the Michigan Department of Public Health warned in a letter.

Cylkowski said a series of conferences with the hospital administration and a tour of all the facilities at Wayne County General Hospital have convinced his group of the need to maintain the nursing care facility.

"The facility is caring for approximately 820 patients who would be very difficult, if not impossible, to place in private nursing homes," Cylkowski declared. "Efforts to place these patients in private nursing homes have failed in the past."

Cylkowski said another important consideration was the proximity of the medical and psychiatric care facilities of Wayne County General.

"Many of these patients are in bad enough condition that they should be as close as possible to intensive medical care facilities," he stated. "The facilities are excellent for this at the hospital."

Cylkowski's group recommended that the Board of Supervisors adopt a resolution confirming the need to construct a new building to replace the present nursing care facility and initiating steps to consider alternative methods of financing.

Studies have shown that remodeling the present building to meet federal and state standards would cost more than a new building, Cylkowski's committee was told.

The Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council, an agency for area-wide planning for health services in the metropolitan area, has been asked to advise the Board of Supervisors regarding the number of additional nursing care beds needed in the county.

"If it became necessary to close the long-term care facility at Wayne County General, the county would have to pay out some $5-million in tax funds for care of the patients in private nursing homes," Cylkowski said.

He pointed out that a recent census showed that all but 27 of 820 patients were residents of Wayne County.

Three members of the sub-committee praised Cylkowski for his leadership in facing the problem. They are west side Detroit supervisors Robert E. FitzPatrick, of the 13th District, and Thomas P. O'Rourke, of the 14th District; and 22nd District Supervisor Robert L. Tripp, of Lincoln Park.

WRC Entertains Patients at Wayne General

BELLEVILLE--Seven members of the John M. Wahl Chapter of the Women's Relief Corps, of Belleville entertained approximately 150 male patients at the M Building Eloise Hospital on Thursday, March 6.

The seven are Mrs. Ruth Ann Knyz, Mrs. Olive Caswell, Mrs. Brenda Kittle, Mrs. Bettie Kittle, Mrs. Alice Harvey, Mrs. Luella Manderville, and Mrs. Sylvia Baudlin. They furnished approximately 300 cup cakes and doughnuts, 150 delicious apples and about 100 candy bars to the patients. The hospital furnished the coffee.

Several of the ladies bought some of the handcraft made by the patients, the proceeds from which they will use to make their ward more attractive.

THE PREVIOUS WEEK, some of the ladies of the Corps entertained the patients at Woody's Rest Home, in Romulus. In fact music and for a time seemed to forget themselves and really showed their appreciation in many ways. All were very profuse in their thanks when it came time for the women to say "Good bye". The members also visited "K" ward, which has only women patients, and they all were pleased at having the ladies visit them.

Cheerleading Teams Chosen At Belleville Junior High

For the first time in history, Belleville Junior High School this year initiated a cheerleading program.

Interest was high with approximately 180 seventh and eighth grade girls attending clinics and practices. Some dropped out before try-outs, but a majority of them stayed with it and worked hard.

Try-outs were held in the middle of January on two separate days, one for seventh, and one for eighth grade. The girls were selected by a panel of seven teachers. The enthusiasm and spirit showed by all the girls made judging a difficult job.

Mrs. Virginia Schimmel took charge of the eighth grade girls, and Mrs. Marjorie Leonard the seventh grade. Being so late in the season, there was a mad scramble to assemble uniforms. Ingenuity and industry triumphed and the girls had uniforms within two weeks. An exciting, though not always victorious season, was enjoyed by fans, players and cheerleaders alike.

SEVENTH GRADE girls chosen were Linda Bollman, Candy Ferguson, Carolyn Dillingham, Sharon Mills, Kim Zannis, Jan McCollum, and Lori Prill, with Jerri Porzondek, Sharon White, and Cindy Lehman, alternates.

The eighth grade team is comprised of Sue Keon, Sue Jarrett, Sandy McDaniel, Paula Memering, Debbie Costa, Robin Lorentson, Pat Wojtowicz, and Brenda Gollwitzer. Alternates are Kitten Florian and Daren Goll.

Would you like to give each of your children a present worth $14,800? Set an example by stopping smoking. For the smoker consuming a pack a day, the cost is about $120 a year. If this money were put in a bank from age 17 to 65 and yielded a conservative 3 1/2-percent interest after taxes, the accumulation would amount to about $14,800. For a family of two smokers this would total $29,600. What a priceless gift?

Why spend money foolishly! Get what you pay for! HOOK'S CLEANERS INC. offers you complete and dependable dry cleaning service. We are famous for quality & faster service. GROESCHNER-EMERSON WED

Double Ring Vows Repeated At United Methodist Church

THE UNITED Methodist Church of Belleville was reserved Saturday, March 1, for the afternoon wedding of Patricia Ann Emerson and Robert Earl Groeschner. Some 150 assembled guests witnessed the double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Allen B. Rice, II.

Arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums graced the altar for the three o'clock nuptial rite which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Emerson, of 140 Madelon Street, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Earl Groeschner of S. Norwalk, Conn.

The bride's brother, Rick Emerson, soloist for the wedding, sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied on the organ by Klair Kissel.

FOR HER WEDDING day, Pat selected a coat-dress ensemble in white raw silk. The street-length coat was fashioned with a wide cuffed stand-away collar and long sleeves, etched in Venice lace. The sleeveless sheath dress was styled with a scoop neckline and a high-rise bodice accented with matching lace.

Her short bouffant veil of silk illusion was caught to a lace-trimmed pillbox and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, Frenched carnations and stephanotis. Pat's only jewelry was an heirloom diamond lavalier which has been passed down from mother to daughter for three generations.

Preceding the bride and her father up the aisle was Mrs. Michael White (nee Patty Lou Robson), of Westland, a life-long friend of the bride. Her short mint-green frock was distinguished by a lace collar which dipped to a deep 'V'. Her accessories were a matching veiled Dior bow and colonial bouquet of pink roses and carnations.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S brother, Donald Groeschner, came from S. Norwalk, Connecticut to serve as best man. Others on the esquire side were the bride's brothers, Bill and Rick Emerson.

At the champagne reception, which followed in the Huron Motor Inn, Ypsilanti, Mrs. Emerson received in a multi-colored, floral print, tunic dress of raw silk. Her accessories were in bone and a corsage of white gladioli completed her ensemble.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Groeschner donned a turquoise suit of silk ottoman with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink gladioli.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT E. GROESCHNER

The newlyweds left immediately after the reception to return to their teaching positions in New Canaan, Connecticut. Pat graduated from Belleville High School in 1964 and from Michigan State University in 1968. Her husband, a graduate of Norwalk High School, earned his teaching degree at Danbury State College, Danbury, Connecticut.

Happy Birthday To Girl Scouts

We all know that everybody wants to be 'Somebody.' This is especially true of today's youngsters. Unfortunately, many of today's youth believe the only way to gain acceptance in the eyes of their peers is the path of destruction; and it's all too true that breaking windows and such often gets their name in the papers.

But so will helping out at a day center, cleaning up an ugly lot, or sharing new found experiences with the handicapped. Girl Scouts do these things and have been doing so for 57 years.

This week all over the country Girl Scouts are celebrating their 57th birthday and they are celebrating not only with parties but the continuation of the thousands of projects providing service to their communities and the people abroad.

Unique is the fact that once these girls become really involved in these scouting activities, service to others, they stop caring about getting their names in the papers. They know they are important, they are 'Somebody.'

Scouting

three million youngsters and nearly 3/4 million adults nationwide.

In Belleville there are 458 girls and 111 adults active in 22 Girl Scout troops; in Romulus 317 girls and 58 adults in 14 troops; in Flat Rock 354 girls and 74 adults in 14 troops; and in Huron Township 133 girls and 74 adults in 6 troops.

The Girl Scout program is made up of four age level adaptations, each in keeping with the needs and interest of girls at those age levels. Brownies are 7 and 8 years old and in the 2nd and 3rd grades. Their program appeals to the imagination and curiosity of younger girls and lets them "Be Discoverers", "Friendmakers," and "Ready Helpers."

Junior Girl Scouts are 9, 10 and 11 years old or in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades. These girls explore new activities through proficiency badges and earn sashes of recognition of growth and progress.

Cadet Girl Scouts are aged, 12, 13 and 14, and are in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades. They do intensive work on proficiency badges and on challenges—real life situations that test the girls' abilities to use the knowledge and understanding they have gained of social dependability, emergency preparedness, active citizenship, and the Girl Scout Promise.

Referendum Vote Drive Initiated For Fair-Share Education Program

A statewide petition drive is now being initiated, calling for a referendum vote of the people to determine the type of tax by which they wish to finance their schools.

If this petition drive is successful, a Constitutional amendment will be submitted to the electorate in November of 1970 — calling for some simple and basic changes in our tax structure:

• The removal of all school operating millage from the real and personal property tax rolls.

(Depending on the individual school district, this will mean reductions ranging roughly from 50 to 75 percent of the total property tax bill being paid by Michigan firms and homeowners.)

• An increase in the state personal and corporate income tax as a new means of meeting the costs of operating our schools. (Based on last year's costs, this would require an increase of about 3.4 percent in the personal rate, with the corporate rate increasing proportionately. It may be safely anticipated, however, that the costs of education will continue to increase as has been the case in the past, whether financed through the property or income tax.

THE PROPERTY TAX is regressive, long outdated, and totally unrelated to ability to pay. It places the most unbearable burden, for example, upon retired persons and low-income homeowners. Where businesses and corporations are concerned, it taxes those showing a profit and those suffering a loss at exactly the same rate," Roy Smith of Ypsilanti, State Representative, 52nd District, Chairman of committee for fair-share school financing, said.

"Only by moving to a more adequate and equitable source of revenue for the primary financing of school operation can Michigan school children — in rural areas, suburbs, and core cities alike — be offered the education opportunities to which they have long been entitled, rather than educations determined largely by the property valuation of their districts," he added.

Under the Fair-Share Program, with new limitations, bonding proposals for school buildings would still be included in the property tax, since only property owners are allowed to vote on such proposals, and since school buildings tend to increase the value of property, this seems reasonably fair.

Municipalities would still be permitted to levy property taxes, within their charter limits, while counties and townships would be limited to 8 and 12 mills respectively, unless the voters approved larger amounts.

"This program deals solely with the financing of education and would have no effect, in either direction, on the question of local control of schools."

Ford Joins in Demand For Nixon Tax Stand

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman William D. Ford (D) 15th District joined with some 25 other Members of Congress today in calling upon President Richard Nixon to state his position on legislation designed to close 13 income-tax loopholes.

In a telegram to the President, Congressman Ford and his colleagues cited a scheduled vote next week on an administration proposal to raise the national debt ceiling by another 12 billion dollars.

Charging that tax loopholes rob the government of many billions of dollars each year, the Congressman declared that this is an important reason why the national debt remains so high.

Congressman Ford and other signers of the telegram have co-sponsored H.R. 5250, the Tax Reform Act of 1969, designed to plug such loopholes as the oil depletion allowance, "hobby farms", and multiple corporations. The House Ways and Means Committee, which is considering the legislation, has formally requested the Treasury Department's views on the proposal.

IN THEIR telegram to the President, the Congressmen said:

"It is very difficult to vote for a bill to increase the debt ceiling without knowing whether the administration will make a serious attempt to keep the national debt down by plugging loopholes.

"Accordingly, we respectfully request that the administration make known its views on the 13 loopholes included in H.R. 5250 prior to the vote on the debt limit bill, so that we may be instructed by those views. Failing that, we certainly request that we be told when a statement of administration views on H.R. 5250 will be made."

Ford said that the tax reform legislation would add at least 9 billion dollars annually to Federal revenues. He voted last year against the 10 percent income tax surcharge, contending that it would not be necessary if tax loopholes were eliminated.

Bill Seeks Vandalism Payment

ROMULUS--School vandalism may become a costly pastime if a bill recently introduced to the State Legislature is adopted.

The proposed bill provides that any person who wilfully or maliciously damages any property owned by any school district in the state or owned by the state shall be liable to the owner of the property for three times the amount of actual damage.

With costs involving school vandalism a substantial portion of a districts expenses, the reimbursement factor might stimulate more parental control over minors who choose such methods of venting their destructive tendencies.

The local plant was among six of Chevrolet's 31 plants across the nation which attained a top score last year in a competition where "O" is perfection.

Chevrolet plants are rated annually on two safety factors: the frequency of accidents per million hours worked and the severity of accidents per million hours worked. The latter is based on the number of employee work days lost through accidents.

which recorded a total of 3,724,507 hours of work in 1968 without a lost time accident has accrued 4,914,884 hours since their last time losing accident in August of 1967.

IN RECOGNITION of the Willow Run plant's achievements in 1968, Fred R. Brown, safety supervisor, was presented a bronze plaque by L.J. Rausch, special assistant to the general manager of Chevrolet, at an awards dinner at Detroit.

"Safety performance such as that evidenced by our Willow Run plant proves conclusively that Chevrolet jobs are safe jobs," Rausch said in making the presentation.

The Willow Run plant,

Steiner paid special tribute to employees of Chevrolet-Willow Run for their efforts in working safely during 1968. "It required the enthusiastic cooperation of each of our employees to make the coveted award possible," he explained.

The plant manager also praised his manufacturing group, who he said had conducted a continuous campaign to make each employee conscious of plant safety every minute of each working day.

Romulus Reigns As Cage Champs

ROMULUS--Led by their All-Area 6-5 center, Larry Smith, Romulus roared from behind in both games this past week to defeat both Taylor High Schools and win the Melvindale District Championship. Tonight (Wednesday) they will face their severest test to date when they tangle with a tall, talented Garden City West squad in the regional at 8 p.m. at Livonia Franklin High School.

Romulus, the only area school still left in the state basketball tournament, will have to play much better than they did this past week if they hope to get by the Tigers of Garden City West. "We just couldn't seem to get untracked in either game last week," Romulus cage coach Al Duva explained, "and we had to overcome our mistakes to pull out the victories." Romulus beat Taylor Center, 57-54, in overtime and defeated Taylor Kennedy, 51-46.

The high-flying Eagles fluttered against Taylor Center on Wednesday and were almost shot down before they had a chance to reach the heights. The Rams took a 12-9 first period edge and kept the margin at half time, 25-22.

Charles Johnnican paced Romulus' attack with 18 points for the game and got four in the first frame. The Eagles were tight, tense and threw the ball away time and again. Taylor's 6-2 center Foster hit on three baskets to lead his team to their three-point advantage.

Things remained about the same in the second quarter, with Romulus still making turnovers and playing unsettled ball. Smith hit three buckets for Romulus and teammate Lewis Davis added five to keep the Eagles alive. Deegan hit three buckets and the Rams' Logan, who led his team with 17 points, added four in the second period.

Things looked extremely bad for the local squad when they were behind by as many as 12 points in the third period. But Romulus continued to hustle and managed to trail by only six at the end of the third frame. When Romulus dropped behind by 12 points, coach Al Duva ordered his boys into a combination full-court press and zone defense. It worked beautifully and cut the lead of Taylor Center in half.

Warming to the task, Charles Johnnican fired in 10 fourth quarter points to lead his team from a 37-31 deficit at the third-quarter mark to a 50-all tie at the end of regulation time. Then Johnnican rammed in six of Romulus' seven overtime points to salt away the 57-54 win.

Sixteen of Johnnican's game-high total of 18 points came in the last quarter and the 3-minute overtime. Larry Smith came to life and fired in seven points in the fourth stanza and began to really work on the boards. Rick Paglia also fired in seven points and helped keep the pressure on the Taylor team. Romulus outscored their opponents, 19-13 in the fourth frame to gain the tie and send the game into the overtime period.

"We played very badly, but the boys never gave up," Duva said later. But anymore games like the two Taylor tilts will surely give Duva heart palpitations.

After winning on Wednesday night the Eagles were paired against Taylor Kennedy on Saturday night for the regional championship. And the game looked almost like a taped re-play of the first tilt on Wednesday, only worse.

In some of the poorest playing and shooting of the year, Romulus managed only eight points in the first period and 17 for the entire first half. Meanwhile, Kennedy was racing to a 17-8 first period lead and a 29-17 margin at intermission.

Again the Eagles were tense and taking poor shots and Kennedy took control of the boards, mainly on the strength of 6-4 center Mike Alexander and 6-3 forward Len Gorski. Emery Breznai fired in 21 to lead the Kennedy team in scoring and tallied seven points in the initial quarter, while Gorski added six.

Johnnican and Davis each hit on two baskets for Romulus' entire output in the opening frame. Things proceeded to get worse in the second stanza when Breznai and Gorski continued hot with five points apiece. Larry Smith of the Eagles matched their total, but at one point in the second quarter Romulus trailed by a whopping 17 points.

"Things looked pretty dismal for us at that point," Duva admitted, "but the boys hung in there and came through like champions." The veteran coach, remembering the experience of Wednesday's game, ordered his boys again into a full-court press and it worked.

Trailing by 12 beginning the last half, Romulus raced to a third period 17-6 scoring edge to cut the gap to one slim point, 35-34, entering the last eight minutes. Smith, who pulled in 15 rebounds, scored an equal number of points to pace the Romulus attack. Frank Nesbit, who had been hobbled by a bad ankle, showed no ill effects, hauling in 13 rebounds, and pumping in 11 points, nine of them coming in the last quarter to help pull out the victory.

Duva replaced Paglia late in the second quarter with Warren Bonham and he played great on defense, keying the Eagles full-court press and zone defense in their own end. Along with Bonham, all the Romulus regulars played tremendous defense in the last half, limiting Kennedy to only 17 points in the final 16 minutes.

Romulus, spurred greatly by their successful pressing tactics, outgunned their opponents, 17-11, in the last quarter to win going away, 51-46. The pressing defense got them started and they stayed on Kennedy's heels through the final frame. Then with two minutes left in the game, Frank Nesbit tapped in a rebound to put the Eagles ahead for good, 45-44, and they increased their margin to the final score.

The defeat snapped an 11-game winning streak by Kennedy, a team whose 11-3 record had placed them second behind Garden City West in the Tri-River League.

Romulus held Taylor Kennedy to only 14 field goals in 38 attempts, while they hit 22 of 51. Although the Eagles had only 7 of 16 free throws, Kennedy's 18 of 28 was not enough to bring them the win.

Besides Smith's 15 points, Johnnican added 12, and Nesbit and Davis 11 each. For the Rams, Emery Breznai hit 21 while Len Gorski contributed 14.

And so it's on to the big one tonight at Livonia Franklin and a big test against the Tigers of Garden City West. Coach Duva expressed concern about the height of his opponents. "They've got plenty of height and we can not afford to fall behind like we did this past week. If we do, we're sunk," he said.

"But I'm looking forward to the game with great anticipation," he concluded. And so will a jam-packed crowd of rabid basketball fans at Livonia Franklin High School tonight.

AT TEMPERANCE BEDFORD

Tigers End "Sad" Year

TEMPERANCE--Belleville's basketball season ended on a sad note here last Wednesday night when the Tigers were bounced out of the state basketball tournament, 63-56, by a determined Bedford team. And Al Gates, in his first year as coach, is still convinced as he puts away the basketball gear this week that he had the best club in the Temperance Bedford District meet.

"I just can't explain what happened," the likeable Gates said after the game. "I know we have a much better team than we showed and if we could have gotten past the first game, I feel we'd have won the district title. But, we didn't..." and here his voice trailed off.

It looked as if Belleville was going on to great things as they roared to a 10-0 first period lead and ended the frame with a 16-10 margin. Everything seemed to fall into place as Belleville played aggressively and Garrade Pettus scored seven points in the first period. His driving lay-ups combined with Yocum's and Fowlkes' four points each led the way. Bedford scored most of their opening 10 points on free throws, with Jim Kindle scoring four points and Tim Towne adding three.

Then, unexplainably, everything turned around completely and the host school bombed the Tigers with a second period 21-6 scoring outburst to set the pattern for the night.

"I just don't know what happened," Gates said. "We were going great guns and all of a sudden we went stark cold and every whistle seemed to be against us." Bedford's Kindle fired in three baskets in the torrid drive, with Mike Cass chipping in five and Denny Kenney four. Belleville made many mistakes and the referees' whistles seemed to catch every Tiger infraction.

Bob Fowlkes and Norm Harrington, both pillars in the Tigers' attack, picked up three fouls apiece in the second quarter and had to go to the bench. Harrington left with four minutes remaining in the second stanza and Fowlkes was yanked with 2:30 left. This is when Bedford made its move, not only after the pair left, but before they were benched, knowing they could not closely guard their men.

Bedford retired at intermission with a 31-22 lead and managed to increase it to 45-33 during the third quarter. Kindle pumped in five points and 6-foot-6 center Eric Albert, who had 15 for the night along with Kindle and Kenney, tipped in a pair of rebounds.

Pettus and Harrington had six and four, respectively, to pace the Tiger attack. Harrington picked up his fourth foul in the first two minutes of the second half and so did Fowlkes, to seriously hamper Belleville's

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

Hate to do this to you guys at this point of the game—but my boss sez I have to go on my vacation. And I agree. After two years of perpetually pounding this pica machine, I feel it's about time to call it quits.

Anyway, the All-Area Basketball Teams have been picked and so have the All-Area Wrestling and Swimming squads. So there isn't much for us to do around these parts, so I'm cutting out.

I know the next guy will be able to write in the details of who's who on those teams.

Meanwhile, I'm heading for a long rest. These eyes of mine just "ain't" what they used to be. Heck, the other day at Livonia Franklin during the district playoffs I could barely keep these lids open. I just gotta go in for a check up.

But before I leave, I'd like to say I enjoyed it all—every moment of it.

But, I realize there's plenty of cage action remaining to be covered: Inkster and Rouge and West and Romulus. Those will be humdingers, believe me.

And I don't even dare predict the outcome!

It's just going to be wonderful to watch 'em without worrying about what you have to write about the next day.

But, before I take off, I'd like you to hear some of the

Warrick Runnerup In State

LANSING--Brad Warrick, Belleville's master wrestler, went all the way to the state finals before losing a heart-breaking 4-3 decision to Bill Davids of Hazel Park here last Saturday.

Warrick (103) had earned his way into the championship match by winning three bouts in the state capital. On Friday he pinned Flint Central's Jim Green at 5:05 and later decided Steve Rodriguez of Detroit Catholic Central, 6-4.

Brad gained a great measure of satisfaction when he decided Dan Respress of Ferndale on Saturday, 7-3. Respress had won, 10-1, over Ron Miller, last year's 95-lb. champ and victor over Warrick in last year's meet.

The championship bout started fast with Davids getting two quick takedowns for four points and Warrick outwrestled his opponent the rest of the way, but could not quite catch him. Many observers among the crowd of 4,500 actually felt Warrick was the better wrestler even though he lost.

After Davids took the lead, he seemed content to ride out the time. Warrick picked up his first point with an escape in the first round, and got another escape point in the second period to trail, 4-2, at that point. In the last period, Warrick got one point "riding time" but lost the close match, 4-3.

Belleville's Steve Hampton (138) and Romulus' Nate (Moose) Williams (Heavyweight) found the going rough among the cream of the wrestling crop and both fell in their first matches. Hampton lost to Myron Borders of Pontiac Central, 7-1, on Friday. Borders ultimately finished third in the state meet and Belleville wrestling coach Jim Richendollar called him a "real fine wrestler."

Williams lost his first match to Delbert Osborn of Royal Oak Dondero, 10-0.

Many of the top seeded wrestlers were beaten in their matches here. "Numerous Top-seeded men were eliminated and the underdogs did very well," Richendollar explained. "It was a real joy to see the cream of the crop perform on the mats here. All the boys were fine wrestlers and deserve all the credit they can get," he said.

Detroit Catholic Central won the team wrestling title and a list of the individual winners follows:

CHIEFS FINISH 8-10

Flat Rock Ousts Huron

Huron cagers kept pace with Flat Rock for three quarters in the first round of District Playoffs, but a controversial call on one of the Chiefs turned the tide against coach David Court's quintet.

Midway in the finale with the scored tied at 51-41, Randy Gorman went up for the ball and when he came down he found a foul waiting for him.

The ref also ejected Gorman out of the game for "using his knee" and that left Huron without one of their leading rebounders and at the mercy of the taller Flat Rock quintet.

Flat Rock went on to oust Huron 73-65.

Up to that point the game had been a close one with Huron grabbing the lead in the first period 16-13. Flat Rock came back to outscore the Chiefs 17-12 to take command at halftime 30-28.

The nip-and-tuck affair continued in the third quarter and Huron managed to slash the Flat Rock to one point, 46-45, to enter the final quarter.

Huron's two "big-guns" kept up their outstanding play: Jim Inman and Rick Wasilewski combined for 47 of their team's 65 points. Inman was highman for the night with eight baskets and nine free throws for 25 while Wasilewski settled for 22 points.

Huron finished with their second best season ever.

posting an 8-10 overall record. Last year the Chiefs came up with a 12-6 mark which stands as the school record.

"We missed winning a couple of close ones," said coach Court, summing up the season. "I feel that we could have had a better record, but the breaks just didn't go our way."

"But with Wasilewski back in the line-up next season and a lot of reserve talent, the future of basket at Huron is bright as can be," Court said.

R & J Super Holds To Bowling Lead

R & J Super Service has taken over the driver's seat in the Lodge Lanes' Tuesday Ladies' Junior House League with little fears of Dudick of catching up.

Super Service has compiled a 71-20 winning ratio and now is ahead of the eight team field by a comfortable 11 point margin. Dudick trails with a 60-40 record.

In team stats, Dudick's Construction still leads the High Team Three Games with a total of 2315 pins while Canton Auto Parts is next with 2282 and R & J Super Service follows in third with a 2264.

Pat Schonscheck's 217 game is the tops for the league. There's a two-way deadlock for second between Delphine and Dudick and Kay Jaszcz who each have 205's.

The High Team Single Game mark is held by R & J Super which has posted a 857 scoring thrust. Even though hampered severely by foul trouble, Belleville made its move in the last frame, coming to within four points midway through the stanza. But they never could quite notch the equalizer. In pressing for the ball, they fouled and Bedford cashed in on most of them. Belleville only had 12 of 18 free throws while Bedford canned 19 of 27, with Kenney sinking all six foul shots in the last period on one-and-one situations.

Pettus and Harrington fired in three baskets apiece in the last quarter and Fowlkes hit a pair, but Bedford was getting firepower from two men for 16 points. Albert tipped in four baskets for eight points and Kenney scored one bucket and six free throws for his total of eight.

Trailing by four or more, Belleville had to press on defense and in gambling, they left Albert open to sink easy baskets. Belleville outbounded Bedford 47-32 and had a slightly better shooting percentage from the floor, but could not overcome their frigid second frame of only six points.

"The boys really wanted this game very badly," Gates repeated. "And I really wanted this one for the school and for the kids. They've worked hard all year and I would have liked to have had the district title," he said.

"I think it's been 1958 or before since Belleville's won a district crown and it would have been nice for the trophy case. The boys felt they beat themselves," he said. And they feel especially bad because they really believed they had a great chance to advance to the regionals."

Now as the basketball equipment is stored away for another year, Belleville fans can only think of what might have been.

dialogue that was tossed between this columnist and George Fefles, head cage coach and athletic director at Bentley High School.

You see, George is retiring, too.

Well, I asked him why he was quitting his job as head cage coach and he said, "He's had it."

"See those guys in the stripes running down and up, and down the court," George said pointing to the object.

"Yes," I replied.

"Well, that's the reason why I'm quitting. I'm sick and tired of refs who hang on to the job when they know they can't keep up."

"Those guys are spoiling the game for the kids and, after all, this game is for the player and not for the guy with the whistle," said Fefles.

Fefles pointed out that some of the refs -- not all -- can't keep up with the kids and are blowing this game of basketball into oblivion and he wanted out before his image of the game changed.

Fefles, by the way, is one of the most successful cage coaches in this area and is still young. He's only 39. He's won several Suburban Six as well as District and Regional titles.

And it was Fefles who a couple of weeks ago made my telephone ring as if I was an answering service.

The reason: Belleville cage fans thought he walloped one of his players a little too hard in a recent game with the Tigers. The kid of course made a "boo-boo" and his coach let him know of it during a "time-out" with a smack on the pants.

I asked George about it and he just nodded. "I always pat my players on the rear when they do something good or bad. And our boys are physically fit -- they don't cry the way some others do."

Who was the cry baby, George asked?

PTA's are seriously concerned

ROMULUS--Michigan Congress of PTA's has issued an Action Alert to all units to activate members to attend a state-wide conference on public school financing. Each local unit is urged to send as many delegates to the conference as possible.

about the lack of sufficient money with which to operate public schools and the inequitable and inadequate distribution formula for state aid. MCPT also believes that the property tax method of financing public schools is archaic and that new methods of financing must be found. PTA is opposed to Educad which they believe would further cripple the public school fiscal situation. The Romulus Township Board of Education at its January 27th meeting adopted a motion strongly opposing any form of public financial aid to non-public schools and supporting the right of the people of the state to give. Seeks Inspection Of Steam Engines

ROMULUS--State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) has re-introduced his Bill which sets an annual inspection for antique traction steam engines. The Bill last year went as far as the House-Senate Conference Committee, but no further. "There were some points of disagreement in the Bill as presented in the last session," Mahalak explained. The Bill as re-introduced this year irons out some of these points of conflict. It now has cleared the House and has been sent on to the Senate.

The new Bill requires antique traction steam boilers to comply with State rules for other boilers and that they be inspected annually at a fee of $10. A certificate of inspection would be issued by the Department of Labor to show compliance with the law.

"There has, in recent years, been an increased interest in antique steam boiler," Mahalak noted. "I feel this law is necessary for the safety of the public, but yet not a great hardship on the owners of these antique steam engines." Mahalak further noted that, "I'm sure

Olympic Medalists In Detroit Meet

At least 20 members of Uncle Sam's 1968 Olympic track and field team appear slated to compete March 14 and 15 in the NCAA indoor championships here, with five gold medal winners topping the list.

This choice quintet includes San Jose State's great duo of Lee Evans and Ronnie Ray Smith, Southern California's Bob Seagren, Villanova's Larry James and Oregon State's flip-flop high jumper Dick Fosbury.

James, Fosbury and Seagren all have won NCAA titles on the same Cobo Arena boards in past years, James and Fosbury capturing the 440 and high jump last year while Seagren won the pole vault in 1967 with the only 17-foot-plus leap the NCAA indoor championships have seen.

Chances appear strong that Evans and James, who ran one-two in the record breaking 400 meters at the Olympic Games, will match strides again in the quarter-mile, which will be one of six finals on Friday night's program. Finals in the 11 other championship events will be contested as part of Saturday afternoon's card.

Although he had to settle for an Olympic silver medal as 1,500-meter runner-up, the glamor boy of the 1969 NCAA meet is likely to be world record miler Jim Ryun. The lean Kansan will seek a double triumph for the second straight year when he defends his two-mile crown Friday night and the mile title Saturday afternoon.

Crowds in excess of 9,000 are expected for the fifth successive year to pack Cobo Arena for both sessions, starting at 8 p.m. March 14 and 2:30 p.m. March 15. The meet is sponsored annually by The Detroit News.

Wolverine Raceway Opens Monday

They're calling upon the Luck Of The Irish out at Wolverine Raceway to keep the snow away when the track opens Monday night (March 17).

That's St. Patrick's Day, of course.

Last year, the Detroit Race Course was the scene of a blustering blizzard on opening night (March 22). By the second day, the entire State was covered with more than eight inches of snow and the wind continued to blow. The races went on, however, but with the expected result that attendance and wagering were way down.

So Orlow G. Owen, Wolverine vice president and general manager, is calling upon the leprechauns and various Irish elves and sprites to keep the weather clear come Monday.

Soil Conservation District Attacks Many Problems

WAYNE Wayne County citizens are taking steps to organize a Soil Conservation District.

Petitions to the State Soil Conservation Committee of the Michigan Department of Agriculture ask that all land in Wayne County be included.

What is a Soil Conservation District and what does it do?

A Soil Conservation District is a legal entity of Michigan government organized under enabling Act passed by the Michigan legislature in 1937. It comes into being only on petition by local people, a satisfactory public hearing by the State Committee and finally by a favorable vote of local landowners and occupiers.

The district is administered by a local board of five directors elected by local people. These directors receive no salary for their services, but are provided through a State of Michigan appropriation with minimum travel expenses and office supplies.

A SOIL CONSERVATION District cannot levy taxes, issue bonds or borrow money. Its basic job is to work with local people to help identify and to correct the soil and surface water conservation problems. Basically, they have five objectives:

- Reduce erosion caused by both wind and water
- Maintain the productivity of good land and, if possible, to improve it
- Put misused land to some productive use
- Manage surface water, and
- Help landowners and occupiers make necessary land use changes

The district, as a legal entity, calls upon many federal, state and local agencies to provide all landowners with assistance on these problems. Technicians from the United States Soil Conservation Service are assigned to the district to work under the general direction of the District Board of Directors. These men are soil scientists, water engineers, forestry and wildlife specialists and crop specialists with technical training in soil and water problems.

The district likewise uses the educational and technical programs of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Many of Michigan's 83 districts in 81 counties likewise work closely with school districts, planning commissions, zoning boards, road commissions, drain commissioners, contractors and builders with a great variety of land use activity.

A LANDOWNER experiencing soil and water problems must make a voluntary request to the District Board of Directors for help. Technicians then make a survey of soil and inventory the soil and water problems, past land use and intended use of the property. A conservation management plan is then developed with the owner.

Engineering assistance is provided if needed, and advice and counsel on installing the practices also occurs. There is no direct charge to the landowner for this service.

Over 35 soil and water conservation practices are used by the 53,000 landowners who are already district cooperators in Michigan. Some of these practices are tile drainage, pump drainage, water outlet engineering, wind erosion control, farm ponds, reforestation, wildlife cover, strip cropping, contouring, wind control practices, cover crops, lime and fertilizer, grass waterways and vegetation development.

EACH SOIL Conservation District, likewise, carries out a great variety of information and education programs both with youth and adult to help promote an understanding of land and water resource values and ways by which the application of soil and water conservation practices may enhance land. In Michigan, only Wayne and Oceana Counties do not have Soil Conservation Districts.

For additional information contact the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service, P.O. Box 550, Wayne, Michigan 48184, telephone 721-6550.

Nursery Service Studied

ROMULUS--The committee working to organize a nursery service for Romulus pre-schoolers made a visit to the Taylor Parents Cooperative Nursery last Thursday, March 6.

Mrs. Jeannie Ursery, chairman, reported that six Romulus mothers inspected the Taylor Facility which is held in the hall of the Methodist Church.

The committee was impressed with the many activities and projects the children were pursuing. There were 22 children participating in the program with three mothers supervising and a teacher providing instruction.

Future plans are for a visit to the Ferndale Day Care Center. Mrs. Ursery invites anyone interested in helping make plans for and in the organization of a Romulus Township Pre-School Nursery to call her at 728-5045.

Poster Winners Chosen

BELLEVILLE--The sixth grade students at Elwell Elementary School, 17601 Elwell, recently participated in the 25th AAA National Safety Poster Contest.

The safety slogans from which they were allowed to select were "WEAR WHITE AT NIGHT" and "CROSS ONLY AT CORNERS."

A preliminary contest was held at the school in which twelve members of the staff acted as judges. The eleven top posters were then sent to the National Contest, the results of which will not be known for several weeks.

The winners of the contest are Debra Bond, fourth place winner; Debra Bokon, first place winner; Sam Rochon, second place; Steve Prouty, third place; Nancy Lemanski and Debra McCloskey. The other runners-up are Janet Poe, John Smith, Michael Michnewicz, Terry Vickey, and Gina Bacome.

The first, second and third place winners were awarded with trophies.

Minority parties must gain at least one percent of the votes cast for the successful secretary of state to keep a spot on the ballot for the next election without collecting new qualifying petitions. No minority party has succeeded in doing that since the Socialist Party did in 1932.

NEW BELLEVILLE APARTMENTS--Construction of a six-unit apartment project at Second and Church Streets is nearing completion. The new apartment structure is being built by Clyde Younce contractor and land owner, of 540 Haggerty Road, Plymouth. Above is a progress view of the new housing units.

you're bored stiff being in the house all winter and if, somehow, being ordered about by the phone, washer, refrigerator, stove and small sticky children doesn't fulfill the "real you," maybe the YWCA has the answer.

"Y" groups are being formed all over Western Wayne County to enable young homemakers to get out of the house for a few hours each week.

A group could be formed in any neighborhood enabling young women to get together during the day to pursue whatever interest catches their fancy.

Some of the workshops and morning out activities being offered in other communities are: Fur Botique, Upholstery, Beginning Bridge, Sketching, Pastels and Painting, Decoupage, Hootenanny Guitar, Chair caning and rushing, Cake Decoration and others.

If you are interested in joining with others in a worthwhile and entertaining endeavor, call the YWCA at LO-14110.

THE WORLD

The world is round, people will agree
But many times, it seems flat to me,
The hustle and bustle, to find a place
Did you ever think, your country's at stake.

People in a hurry, to benefit themselves
While their brothers and sisters, serve their country well.
These are the people, I'm trying to get at Stand up and be counted, don't sit back

Lend a hand, -- Lend your soul;
No matter what it is, it helps morals grow,
The great philosopher, Socrates once said,

It stings our toes and bites our nose,
In February we exchange Valentines,
And ice skating is a jolly time.
In March the wind still doth blow,
It means we will have more snow.
April is the month of showers,
Sending forth lovely spring flowers.
May is the nicest month of all,
And it's time again to play some ball.
June is vacation time we know,
Time to grab our fishing poles.
July is time for lots of fun,
Swimming and picnicking in the sun.
August is the harvesting time,
To gather fruits and vegetables off the vine.
Sadly September comes,
For we know vacation time is done.
In October Halloween is great fun,
Children go door to door and scare everyone.
In November we ride our sleighs
And give thanks for our blessings on Thanksgiving Day
December is the merriest month, we say,
For Santa will soon be on his way.
These fleeting months go by so fast,
Before we know it, another year has past.

HERE IN MICHIGAN is the home of the finest aviation program than can be found anywhere in the United States. The Michigan Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, an affiliate of the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association, was founded exclusively for owners of aircraft, pilots, and student pilots in Michigan.

Keynote of the association was to advance the interests of Michigan's aircraft owners and pilots. Along with this the group organizes the knowledge and skill of Michigan's aircraft owners and pilots into a program for the benefit of improvement of general aviation in Michigan. Also it cognizes and honors Michigan's aircraft owners and pilots.

Special major aviation events and workshops highlight programs throughout the year for the membership.

Biggest event of the year is the annual National Aviation and Space Exposition and Air Show to advance the public knowledge, interest, and education in aviation and space activities and accomplishments. Last year's Air Show at nearby Willow Run Airport was witnessed by almost 200,000 people.

For the benefit of the Michigan Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, an annual Aircraft Owners and Pilots Conference is staged. This provides a media for owners and pilots to become better acquainted with each other and formulate actions for the improvement of general aviation in Michigan.

Supplementing this event is the all-important Flight Safety Conference. Here again aircraft owners and pilots have the opportunity to present and evaluate the latest developments and knowledge on the safe and efficient use of aircraft.

Airport programs are constantly being encouraged in the development of Michigan's airports and other landing facilities along with any new phase of airport operation that could be adopted or improved.

A special Michigan Aviation and Space Week is proclaimed annually to educate the public on the needs and values of general aviation for Michigan. This week usually in the late summer is always a gala week of aviation activities throughout the state. Special aircraft and space craft are displayed in high population areas and in downtown Detroit. Aircraft open houses are staged at many local airports and the week is capped by the giant National Aviation Exposition and Air Show.

Highlight of the Michigan Aviation Week is the annual Aviation Awards Banquet to recognize and honor Michigan pilots, organizations and news media for outstanding contributions to aviation.

Twice in the past four years Associated Newspapers has been cited for its outstanding support of aviation and along with "This Flying World" column, which has brought its writer, Bill Balogh, the "Best Aviation Writer" award three times in the same four years.

This week the Association, in conjunction with the Aviation Historical Society and AIR EDUCATION IN OUR BACKYARD-The biggest air event in the nation staged at nearby Willow Run Airport last September drew almost 200,000 spectators. The Michigan Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association is one of the co-sponsors of this huge aviation event.

National Jamboree Leaders are Chosen

DETROIT - Three local Scout leaders have been named among the 36 leaders from the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, selected to accompany 460 Scouts and Explorers from the Metropolitan Detroit area taking part in the 7th National Boy Scout Jamboree at Farragut State Park, Idaho, next summer.

They are Ted Granger, a representative of Cadillac Square's Jamboree Participation Committee, Ernest C. Browne, Jr., 5067 Allendale, of Ambassador Bridge District, and Ollie S. Smith, 9003 Holcomb, from Cadillac Square District.

Browne will serve as Scoutmaster of Jamboree Troop 20, and Smith will be an Assistant Scoutmaster serving in the same troop of 37 Scouts. Calvin E. Light, 11025 Borgman, Belleville, will also serve with Browne and Smith.

ALL THREE jamboree leaders have an outstanding leadership background, particularly in the area of outdoor camping and in the patrol method of troop operation, and they have been actively engaged in leadership on the boy level as called for in the requirements set forth by the National Boy Scout Council in selection of jamboree troop leaders.

This jamboree troop will be one of 12 representing the local council at the huge encampment at Farragut State Park in the mountainous country of northern Idaho next summer. There is still space in most of the troops for Scouts or Explorers who would like to take part in this once-in-a-lifetime Scouting event and who can meet these requirements. Scouts must be registered members of the Boy Scouts of America and be at least 12 years old as of September 1, 1968, but not 18 before July 1, 1969, and must have attained the rank of Star Scout by July 1, 1969.

Explorers must be registered members of a Scout troop or an Explorer post on or before July 1, 1968, and have had camping experience. All boys must meet health and medical requirements as called for by the National Council.

TWO JAMBOREE participation plans are offered by the Detroit Area Council. Those signing up for Jamboree Tour "A" will leave Detroit on Tuesday, July 8, and will sightsee at Seattle, Puget Sound and Victoria, British Columbia enroute to the jamboree, and will sightsee at Glacier National Park on their return to Detroit on July 25.

Tour "B" participants will depart from Detroit on Friday, July 11, sightsee at Glacier National Park, attend the jamboree, and spend part of a day at Whitefish, Montana, returning to Detroit on July 25, 1969.

For complete information on the jamboree, fees, personal equipment, training, and application forms, parents and leaders may call any of the jamboree troop leaders, or they may call the Detroit Area Boy Scout Service Center, 897-1965.

O'Neil Calls for Educational Accountability and Morality

James F. O'Neil, member of the State Board of Education, has released a special report calling for educational accountability and a greater emphasis on morality to meet the needs and problems of today's youth and society.

O'Neil said it's time educators stopped herating taxpayers for all the educational inadequacies and started stepping up to their responsibilities in a more meaningful manner.

He specifically suggested that a system of educational accountability be established on the basis of:

- * Improved attendance - he advocates that state school aid be paid on the basis of average daily attendance figures rather than the present one day count (on the fourth Friday after school starts) and which requires only 60% of the children to be in school.
- * Improved Achievement - he advocates that any increase in state aid be paid out on the basis of improved achievement. He pointed out that while all levels of aid to education have generally doubled over the past ten years, there has not been any measured improvement in achievement and the dropout rate has increased rather than decreased.
- * Improved Utilization of Educational Resources - he advocates year-round schools which he says offer educational and social advantages as well as economic.

O'NEIL ALSO calls for increased emphasis on morality in the schools. He pointed out that 75 percent of the major crimes in Michigan are committed by youth 21 and under, and when you add to this the increasing use of drugs by youth and the increasing campus disruptions, it is obvious that educators, parents, and youth are flunking this most crucial responsibility.

O'Neil called on both parents and teachers to immediately combine their efforts to emphasize the development of self-respect, respect for others, respect for the law, and good citizenship in line with the State Board of Education's recent resolution.

He called for all concerned parents, teachers, and youth to hold both citywide and school conferences to: (A) determine the extent of the needs and problems, (B) to develop plans to meet these needs and problems, and (C) to then implement the plans.

AT HILLSDALE

Area Students Attend United Nations Assembly

Hillsdale College was the scene this year of the 20th annual Model United Nations Assembly (MUNA) held March 7-8.

The event brought together selected students from high schools in Michigan and northern Ohio for two days of debate and decision-making on international affairs with procedures identical to those of the actual United Nations. Approximately 230 students plus advisors attended from 77 high schools, each representing a member country of the United Nations.

Area students participating in the United Nations Assembly were Rick Emerson, Lee Schmidt, Karen Grodi from Belleville High School. They represented Ethiopia. Advisor was Emil Jones.

Major issues resolved by the youthful diplomats include the Israeli-Arab dispute, disarmament, Soviet action in Czechoslovakia, apartheid in South Africa, uses of oceanic seabeds, and pollution of the air, earth and seas.

Moderating the oft-heated debates was secretary-general Sally Gober, a Hillsdale College senior from Cleveland, Ohio, and president of the campus International Relations Club, assisted by the MUNA president and other officials elected by the visiting delegates from within their ranks. Serving as pages and in other auxiliary capacities was approximately 80 Hillsdale College students.

Keynote speaker at MUNA banquet was Professor Arthur Lall, adjunct professor of international affairs at Columbia University and former Indian ambassador to the United Nations. The program was under the advisership of Arlan K. Gilbert, associate professor of history at Hillsdale College.

AREA CHURCH TO HOST 'Sword of The Lord' Conference Announced

BELLEVILLE-The Grace Baptist Church of Belleville will be the host church for the SWORD OF THE LORD Conference March 24-26, Rev. Kiniman Crawford, pastor, announced.

Many churches in the Detroit area are cooperating in the preparations of the conference and it is to be sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Fundamental Baptist Fellowship. Speakers on the program will be Dr. John R. Rice, Dr. Jack Hyles, and Dr. Bill Rice.

Dr. John R. Rice will be speaking both Monday and Tuesday. Dr. Jack Hyles, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, and assistant editor of THE SWORD OF THE LORD, will be speaking on Wednesday. Dr. Bill Rice, evangelist, founder and director of the Cumberland Christian Retreat in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and co-editor of THE SWORD OF THE LORD, will be speaking throughout the conference.

The messages for this conference, as well as all the SWORD Conferences, will be centered on practical themes of soul winning, getting answers to prayer, having the power of the Holy Spirit in your life, growing an evangelistic ministry.

Meetings such as this regularly cause revival fires to be stirred and preachers to give themselves to the seeking of soul-winning power and effectiveness.

The highest enrollment in history is expected this year in Florida state universities.

In The Open

By Lee Smits
Special Writer

ays are longer, sunshine brighter and people keep talking about spring. A proper time to sift through the contents of a catch-all drawer filled with outdoor items. Preparing for a possible spring desk-cleaning.

The joys of outdoor sport are of four kinds; planning, participating, recollection-plus fantasy. Imagining trips that will never take place. Acquiring, in your mind, costly gear and equipment that you know you'll never buy.

An item from the clutter is from Quebec, describing, in both French and English, "waterfowl hunting and fishing on a scale beyond belief" from camps on James Bay, where 2,000 Cree Indians, encouraged by the provincial government, guide sportsmen from comfortable camps. There is excellent wildfowl hunting-snow geese, blue geese, Canadas-and superb trout fishing, accessible by short plane hops. The tab is $50 a day, plus transportation. Baggage limited to 40 pounds. Tote your own sleeping bag. Hunting season, Sept. 1 to Oct. 15. Three days is the minimum recommended for a hunting trip. For the average Michigan sportsman, a James Bay trip is something to dream about in front of a fireplace.

News of natural resources is sometimes pretty grim. A Michigan canning factory was found to have a stock of canned coho, heavily charged with insecticide. Michigan is a leader among the states in organized opposition to wholesale use of poisons which exterminate birds and are a serious hazard to human health.

Natural Resources Department has reported on the 1968 deer kill, which totalled 89,750, a 12 percent drop from the 101,620 deer killed in 1967. Data in deer harvesting are of interest, although not a very good index to the abundance of deer because of such factors as weather, snowfall, conditions affecting business and employment, causing variations in gun pressure.

We come upon a cash register appraisal of Michigan outdoors. A bulletin from the DNR says that winter sports this year will bring more than $50 million into business establishments. The tourist industry in 1968 produced revenue in excess of $1 billion.

The list of endangered wildlife species might well be headed by the whooping crane. The forces marshaled to save this magnificent bird keep watch from the Gulf of Mexico to the western plains. In 1938 the total population had dwindled to 14 specimens. This winter 49 whooping cranes are resting safe from harm on the Arkansas Wildlife Refuge in Texas.

We can't take too much comfort from an increase of 35 whooping cranes since last year. Among endangered species, scientists tell us, is mankind. We're told that 15,000 years ago the earth probably held fewer people than New York does today. Today there are more than three billion people in the world. There is desperate need for a dramatic increase in food resources.

Some talk of farming the sea, eating plankton, the minute animals that swarm in sea water. William Vogt, a biologist who has tried plankton says, "Few of the people who advocate this, I am sure, have tasted plankton."

The bright side of the population picture is pointed out by zoologists who have discovered that nature takes care of population explosions after they reach a peak. Huge die-offs take place, as with the lemmings of the arctic.

Gas Firm to Salute 'Women Who Work'

Michigan Consolidated Gas Company will salute "Women Who Work" with demonstration luncheons to be held in the company's home service auditorium on the second floor at One Woodward Avenue, starting Monday, March 24.

To help busy career women, Michigan Consolidated's graduate home economists, Miss Mary Quilter and Mrs. Sandra Hagman will share with other working women their quick, easy and elegant recipes and dining tips for women who work.

"Planning and preparation of any meal is far more important than hours of labor put into it," according to Mrs. Peggy Thompson, the company's home service director. "Women today are always looking for faster and better ways to do things," she said, "and we can help them."

A complimentary luncheon will be served and recipe booklets will be given to all who attend.

All "Women Who Work" are invited to the company's free demonstrations. But since space is limited, reservations are requested, and may be made by calling 965-8000, extension 2925.

McMullan Apartment Floor Plans Approved

BELLEVILLE-The Van Buren Township Planning Commission has approved floor plans for a large multiple apartment complex to be constructed in Van Buren.

The floor plans are for the initial phases of a proposed apartment complex that will eventually comprise 1,610 dwelling units and golf course and two club houses.

The plans, submitted by Volk & London Architects, Inc., of Dearborn, will now be studied by Stan Price, township building inspector, Morris Levine and Associates, township engineers, then if the plans are approved by these the Township Board will make its decision. Architects represent Frank Volk, Sr., of Dearborn, land owner and developer.

The apartment complex is to be called "Knob On The Lake" and is to be built on a 174-acre land site known as McMullan Point.

The plans for the first phase called for the construction of dwelling units in two and a half story structures.

There will be one-bedroom apartments, two bedroom apartments and three bedroom apartments.

All apartments are to have complete electrical appliances: refrigerators, driers, dishwashers, drapes and carpeting.

There will be 198 units in the first phase and they are to be located on I-94 Expressway and Beckley Roads and on the Belleville Lake area, west side of McMullan Point.

Another section of the first phase with 192 units will be built south of Denton Road. Both sections will have adequate parking spaces.

Students Add News Reporting

BELLEVILLE-One of the subject areas taught in the English classes of Wayne Salow, teacher at Belleville Junior High School, is the field of journalism.

The history of newspapers is given to the students along with experience in the actual production of their own class newspaper.

English students in the eighth grade (Section J) edit news from Detroit and local newspapers that might be used in their own class paper.

News from the Junior High School and Belleville High School make up the major portion of their news.

In this class, students are given experience in such occupations of a paper as editor, reporter, sports writer, art work and advertising. The difference between types of news writing such as editorial writing and straight news is stressed in this program.

Mahalak Finishes Training

ROMULUS - Army Private Gregory E. Mahalak, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mahalak, 10154 Miriam, has completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training at Ft. Polk, La. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises.

During his guerrilla training, he lived under simulated Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks and conducting raids on "enemy" villages. He was taught methods of removing booby traps, setting ambushes and avoiding enemy ambushes.

Other specialized training included small unit tactics, map reading, land mine warfare, communications, and firing the M-16 rifle, M-60 machine gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

Receives Citation

BELLEVILLE - Sergeant Arthur S. Southernland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman F. Southernland of 110 W. Lake St., Bloomington, Ill., has been recognized for helping his unit earn the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Sergeant Southernland, whose wife, Mary, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clars of 17700 Savage road, is an electrical power specialist in the 437th Military Airlift Wing at Charleston AFB, S.C. He will wear the distinctive service ribbon as a permanent decoration.

The 437th was cited for exceptionally meritorious service during its combat and resupply airlift operations around the world from July 1967 to July 1968.

This marks the third time in four years the wing has been honored as an outstanding airlift unit.

More than 11,000 Chippewas Indians live on Minnesota reservations.

Samuel LoPresto's sixth grade reading class, "Robin Hood" and "A Real Birthday Present" were performed under the direction of the class student teacher, Miss Stephanie Evanoff.

The students playing the leads in "Robin Hood" were Ricky Belville as Robin Hood, Nick Radovic as the Sheriff of Nottingham and Jeff Kinzinger as Sir Guy of Gisborne.

Other players were Tim O'Harris, Friar Tuck; Brian Cullin, Little John; Lynn Mida, Will Scarlet; and Brian Derr, King Richard. The remainder of the cast included Mike Adkins, Greg Brindamour, Jim Rice, Audrey Garcia, Janet Mercer, Kathy St. John, Virginia Swanson and Bambi Kumar.

"A Real Birthday Present" was a two-act play in which a girl's best birthday gift turns out to be the friendship of one of her playmates.

The principal characters were Mrs. Fields who was played by Susan Mosey, her daughter Cathy was played by Ruth Moore and Judy Hicks, an unhappy tomboy was played by Pam Barnabe.

In Time of Emergency Many Could Live In Public Shelters

Most communities now have public fallout shelters that would protect many of their residents against fallout radiation. Where there are still not enough public shelters to accommodate all citizens, efforts are being made to provide more.

Most of the existing public shelters are located in larger buildings and are marked with a standard yellow - and - black fallout shelter sign. Other public shelters are in smaller buildings, tunnels, mines and other facilities. These also are marked with shelter signs, or would be marked in a time of emergency.

Individual preparations for a nuclear emergency should include finding out the locations of those fallout shelters designated by local government for public use. If no designations have yet been made, learn the locations of public shelters that are nearest to home, work, school, or any other places where much time is spent.

This advice applies to all members of the family. Children especially should be given clear instructions on where to find a fallout shelter at all times of the day, and what other actions they should take in case an attack should occur.

A fallout shelter does not need to be a special type of building, or an underground bunker. It can be any enclosed space, provided the walls and roof are thick or heavy enough to block many of the rays given off by the fallout particles and thus keep dangerous amounts of radiation from reaching the people inside the shelter.

In addition to protecting people from radiation, most fallout shelters also would provide some limited protection against the blast and heat effects of nuclear explosions that were not close by.

What To Take to a Shelter

Many public fallout shelters are stocked, or are being stocked, with emergency supplies which augment whatever supply of food and liquids that are found in large buildings. These shelter supplies include water, emergency food rations, sanitation items, basic medical supplies, and instruments to measure the radiation given off by fallout particles.

People using a stocked public shelter may wish to supplement these emergency supplies with additional food and liquids. Those with special dietary or health problems should take special medicines or foods, such as insulin, heart tablets, dietetic food or baby food. Other useful items furnished in public shelters include a blanket for each family member, a battery-powered radio, a flashlight, and extra batteries.

Other members of the cast were Kathy Wilkinson, Gayle Simons, Debbie Adams and Marilyn Tackett.

Living in a Public Shelter

The people gathered together in a public fallout shelter for a few days, or possibly for a week or two, probably would find life difficult and unpleasant, but still bearable.

In the shelter, water and food may be scarce, and the available supplies of these necessities may have to be "managed", that is, taken care of, kept clean, and rationed to each person. Sanitation also may have to be managed and controlled, perhaps by setting up emergency toilets and rules to insure that they are used properly. All shelter occupants would have to observe fire prevention precautions, and know what to do in case a fire occurred.

Occupants of a public fallout shelter in a time of attack would not need to know a great deal about handling these problems. A shelter manager and his assistants would cope with them, with the cooperation of all persons in the shelter. He would make the best use of whatever water, food, and sanitary supplies were available, establish fire-prevention and fire-fighting procedures, set up rules for living in the shelter, see that sick and injured persons were taken care of, and arrange for the shelter occupants to carry on various activities necessary for health and well-being.

Using special radiation-measuring instruments, or depending on official information received from outside sources, the shelter manager also would decide when it was safe for the group to leave shelter, and for how long at a time.

For the most part, occupants in a public fallout shelter would be called upon to support, assist and cooperate with the shelter manager and his staff.

The information in this story was furnished by the U.S. Department of Defense, Office of Civil Defense, to help people prepare for a nuclear attack and learn what actions to take in case an attack should occur. Local government authorities are responsible for supplying the public with more detailed survival instructions for this area.
